

Lecture Outline 9: Modernist Landscape Design and the California Garden

Defining "Modern" and "Modernist"

Cubist Artists - Picasso, Braque

Modernist Architecture - The International Style

- Le Corbusier, aka Corbu, Charles-Edouard Jeanneret-Gris
 - La Ville Radieuse, 1922 (a plan for a city of 3 million)
 - Towards a New Architecture, 1927
 - Villa Savoye, Poissy-sur-Seine, France, 1928-31
- The Bauhaus School, Weimar, Germany.
Walter Gropius, director, 1906-1930, new school 1926, left Germany 1933 to teach at Harvard
- Ludwig Mies Van Der Rohe, German Pavilion, 1929 Barcelona International Exposition, director of the Bauhaus, 1930-37

French Cubist Gardens

- Pierre-Emile Legrain
 - Tachard Garden ("lost axis garden"), La-Celle-St.Cloud, France, 1923
- Gabriel Gueverkian
 - Garden of Water and Light, International Exposition of Decorative and Industrial Arts, Paris, 1925
 - Villa de Noailles, Hyeres, France,
architect Robert Mallet-Stevens, 1927

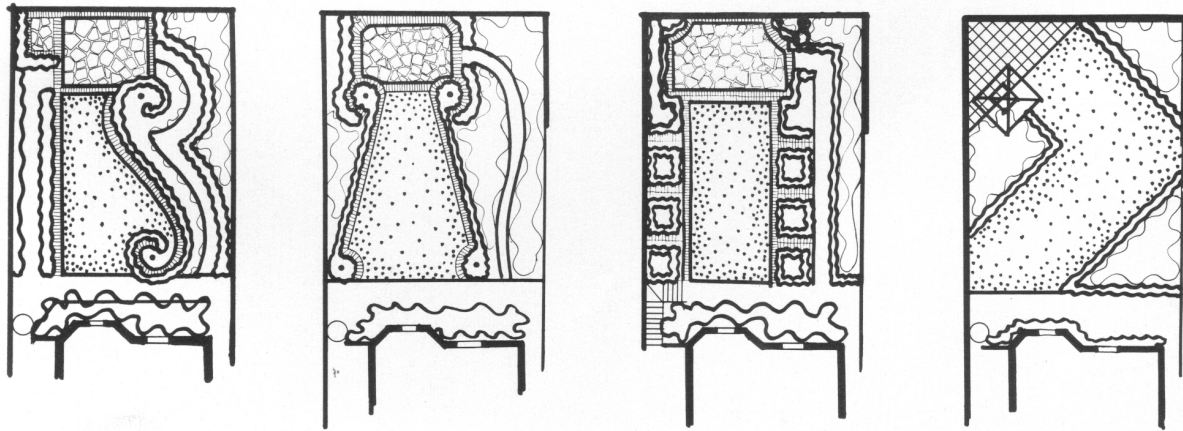

Modernist Landscape Design

Fletcher Steele

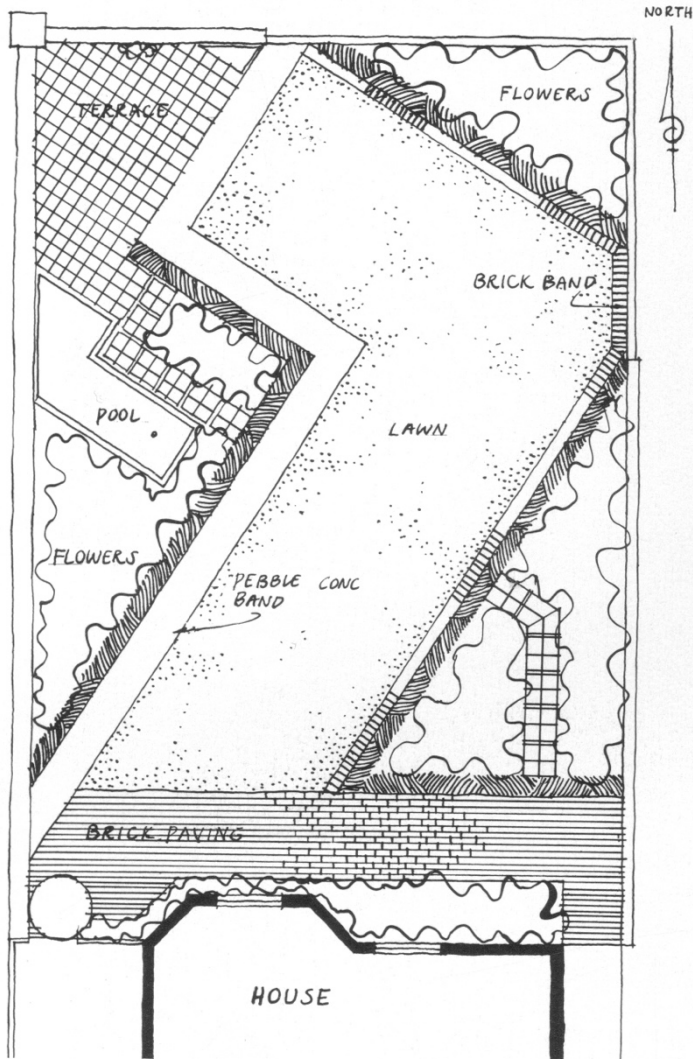

- Naumkeag, client Mabel Choate, Stockbridge, Massachusetts, 1925-1935

Thomas Church

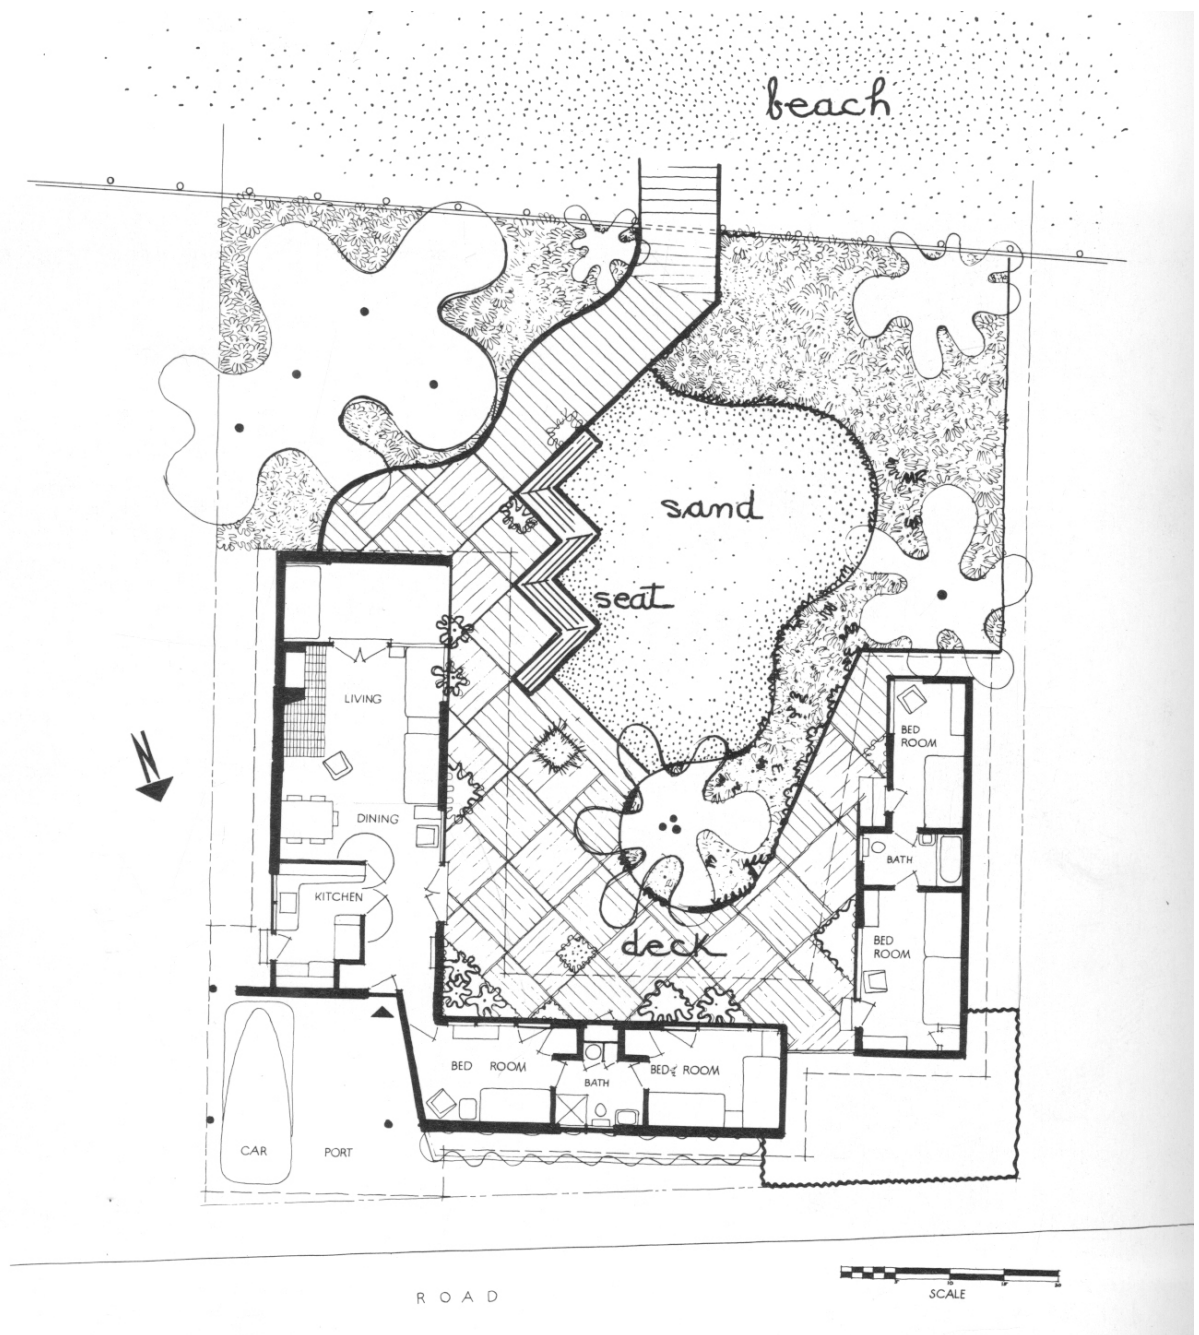

- visits International Exposition of Decorative and Industrial Arts, Paris, 1925
- influence of Finnish modernist architect Alvar Aalto
- Sullivan Garden, San Francisco, 1935
("Garden of Symmetry and Motion")
- Donnell Garden, 1944-48, Sonoma County
- Aptos Beach Garden, Aptos, 1948
- "Town Garden," San Francisco, 1948

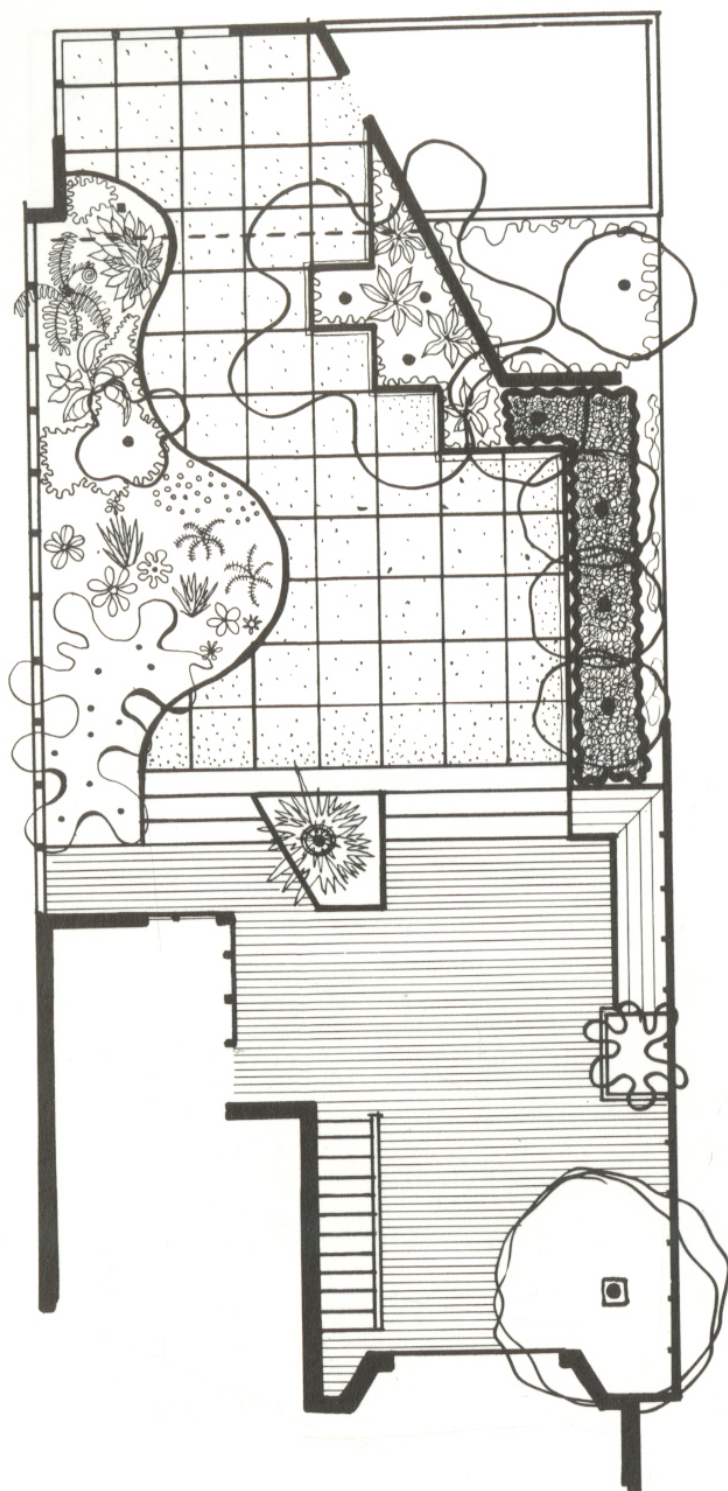

0 10 20 30 FEET

Thomas Church
Garden of Symmetry and Motion
1935
(Sullivan Garden)
San Francisco

Aptos Beach Garden, 1948

Church, Town Garden, 1948